Saturday, June 27, 2009 - Worship at 5:30PM
June 28, 2009
Sunday Worship Services - 8:30 A.M and 11:00 A.M

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans. Our services are a “blend” of traditional and contemporary music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word and Sacrament”, therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

4th Weekend of Pentecost
June 27 & 28, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Quietness

There is a quietness I find in Lamentations 3:22-33. It is filled with the assurances that God is present and wants to be part of our lives. Quietness allows us to recognize God’s presence and faithful help and compassion.

Here at Holden Bed & Breakfast along the shores of Lake Chelan in Washington State where we are presently serving, we are experiencing a peacefulness and joy that is different than we’ve had for awhile. For instance, this morning as I was hanging up sheets, the wind was gently blowing, birds were flitting around—a small bird was chasing a hawk, the barn sparrows were busy making their nests, the hummingbirds were vying for the sweet water we had out for them. Todd was pulling weeds around the tender new shoots of the newly planted seeds of zinnias and marigolds.

I began to sing: “The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning, new every morning; great is thy faithfulness, O God, great is thy faithfulness.” It calls us to quiet ourselves in the now. Quietness is a gift—a choosing to be silent—it holds its breath to listen—it waits and is still (thoughts from Frederick Buechner). When we are quiet, we become so much more aware of life and God. It is something no one or no thing can take from us.

Find time to experience quietness and the presence of God in the everydayness of your life. Be aware of the beauty and wonder of God. Thank God for the ministry that is given to you that may not always be easy, may even cause you grief, yet somehow you know is surrounded by the abundance of God’s faithfulness, steadfast love, and compassion.

Prayer: Silence my thoughts, my mind, my whole being, God. In the quietness of your presence, help me to see and hear more clearly, and to know your steadfast love. Amen. ~Tyger Penson

FCLC Welcomes...

Dr. Philip Stephan to Pastoral Staff

Faith Community Lutheran Church has invited Dr. Philip Stephan to join the pastoral staff. In accepting this part-time position, Dr. Stephan welcomes this opportunity to provide pastoral counseling to members of this congregation. Dr. Stephan counsels individuals, couples, and families. His counseling ministry will assist the pastoral staff with longer term counseling issues. Phil, as he likes to be called, is a licensed psychologist, Lutheran pastor, and can be reached at 303-908-0497. He has worked as a marriage and family counselor in public and private counseling settings for 30 years. Dr. Stephan studied with Dr. Carl Rogers, well known for developing a person-approach to counseling as contrasted to symptom-focused therapy.

Phil developed a Wheatridge Foundation Grant for starting an experimental program in whole-person health care focusing on body-mind and spirit at the University of Colorado Health Center. A similar whole person oriented program will be explored to expand existing health care classes and events in our congregation. Dr. Stephan brings a wide range of skills and experience to his counseling and will be working co-operatively with the Stephen Ministry and Nanette Goings, director of the FCLC education program. For more information watch soon-to-come announcements.
